LIFE INSURANCE.

ALL CASH PLAN OF THE

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

Accumulated Capital, over	$10,000,00
Annual Income,	6,000,000

THE ÆTNA

Has $136 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

ALL POLICIES STRICTLY NON-FORFEITING.

CASH RATES!
CASH POLICIES!
CASH DIVIDENDS!

DIVIDENDS PAID ANNUALLY, COMMENCING AT THE END OF THE YEAR.

Dividends may be used to reduce the annual Premium or increase the Cash value of the Policy.

NON-FORFEITING CASH PLAN.

The Ætna issues Policies on the various forms of whole life and endowment insurance, with dividends on the contribution plan, which may be applied to the reduction of each annual premium after the first, or the full premium, may be paid each year and the dividens applied to reduce the number of annual premiums, together with the period fixed for the maturity of the insurance, so that endowments can be paid to the insured before the time originally specified, and life policies before death.

By this plan of applying the dividends to lessen the cost of the insurance on the original policy, instead of increasing the amount of insurance, and of course its total cost, and the policies will become paid on gaining much sooner than in other companies; and in case of inability to continue payments, give a larger paid-up-policy.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

The New York Insurance Monitor says of the ÆTNA:

"No Life Insurance Company ever achieved so complete a success as this popular institution.—Its popularity is altog ther unprecedented in the annals of commercial enterprise in this country."

SAY OF THE BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIZUR WRIGHT.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. SPEC. Jan. 1869.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

FRIDAY, APRIL 23, 1869.

GOVERNOR HOLDEN SORRY FOR A MISTAKE.

We publish, below, a letter from Judge Battle, addressed to the Editors of the Standard. The Standard says it regrets that it made the mistake referred to by the Judge:

RALEIGH, April 22, 1869.

MESSRS J. R. NEATHERY & Co.—Dear Sirs: I see an article in the Standard of to-day headed "Messrs. Moore, Vance, Bragg, Biggs and the Supreme Court," in which is the following sentence: "And during the late Constitutional canvass, we believe, Hon. Will. H. Battle made several speeches in and around Chapel Hill." The assertion that I made speeches during the late "Constitutional canvass," is a mistake. The speeches which I made, were last Fall, during the Presidential canvass, which was after I had ceased to be a Judge, and was then, as I am now, only a private citizen.

I have not the slightest idea that you intended to misrepresent me, and I am confident you will at once correct the mistake.

Very respectfully,
WILL. H. BATTLE.

Now this falsehood upon the Judge was no mistake. The article was written by the Governor. Jim Taylor could swear to it as readily as he could to the Governor's face.

As a general rule, when editorials abound in falsehoods, and charges, made not directly but by innuendo, you may charge them to the Governor. What the Standard says does not circulate very far, unless we copy in the Sentinel.

To show the Governor in the editorial of the Standard, which calumniated Judge Battle, we give a few extracts from it:

Listen at Holden: "As to Vance we believe he extorted letters from Judges in the contest for Governor in 1864. To see his name signed to the paper, along side those of Bragg and Biggs is natural enough, but to see it near that of Mr. Moore may recall memories of the past which are unpleasant to both, and to Mr. Moore especially detestable." Who could pen these lines but Holden?

But if this does not convince who can doubt after reading the following:

"We tell Vance that he is too well spotted with the leprosy of an evil career to add weight to such a document—and we say to Mr. Moore "fall to thy prayers, old man," and let politics, Vance, Bragg, Biggs, and the Supreme Court of North Carolina alone."

Who could write this but the poltroon who remembered Vance's bed and brandy? Says the "Standard:"

"The protest of Pearson was eloquent with wisdom and terrible with truth."

Eloquent with wisdom and terrible with truth are well sounding terms of Macaulay, which the Governor is fond of using.

"But now we say that this secondary protest of the bar is ridiculous and contemptible."

In the twenty-five years that Holden edited the Standard you will find the words "ridiculous and contemptible" in almost every number. If one number should fail to have it, you will find it twice or thrice in the next number.

"Pettifogging lawyers who take small fees and plead in petty cases for a bare living—who loll around groceries during vacation and talk politics for lack of something else to do, are bad judges of the dignity or propriety of the Supreme Court bench of North Carolina. We advise them to re model their own conduct, reform their own manners, acquire dignity and respectability, and then the people will give ear to their protests against the conduct of the Supreme Court."

The last sentence quoted is pregnant with proof against Holden. He hates little lawyers, as he was one himself. To make a lawyer you must be able to look men in the face, and this Holden could never do.

He hates not only the little lawyer, like C. I. Cantwell, but he hates the great lawyer, like Bragg, or Moore or Biggs.

Holden's standing scandle for lawyers is to connect their names with "groceries," "grog shops," "red eye, &c., &c. He and his son, Joe, filled numbers of their papers about our going to a grog shop, taking red eye—figuring at the bar room in Washington city—breaking our tickler, drinking with Vance on the train, when, in truth, we had so little talent for drinking that many regarded us as a teetotaler. This was done while the Governor, himself, was drinking lightly but often, and Joe frequent and frequent at the grog shops.

The grog shop, Governor, the "cussing" Governor, now talks about "lawyers lounging" about groceries. Where did the Governor come from, to the Town Hall, at that league riot? Did he come from his office, in the Capitol, or the grocery? The truth of history must be vindicated. He came from the grocery—from the grog shop. His head hot and his face flushed with whiskey. We heard some say he was drunk, but we said not, and we said so in the Sentinel. We thought that Governor brandishing a stick over a preacher's head, and speaking to raise a riot, and refusing to obey the Mayor, when disturbing his Court, was simply his meanness and malice, coming prominently in front. And we attributed his base and cowardly conduct to native meanness, malice and revenge, when we should have attributed it to the "red eye," to the "groceries," to the "grog shop, and so using the Governor's words, we say "old man go to your prayers" and quit the grog shops.

The New York Herald says: "To-day the list of foreign appointments, with but few exceptions, may be characterized as the worst we have yet known."

THE ONENESS OF OUR PEOPLE.

Startle not at this heading. In one sense we are one people. We are not, it is true, of the same common stock—we are not all Germans, or Irish, or British, or what not. We are not all of Saxon lineage: but we are of one Government—we mean, those of us, who have been reconstructed. We are at least subject to the same laws, and subject too to the same rulers, whether it be Grant or "our beloved." But we mean not in this article to refer to scallawags—we can do that at any time. Our thoughts are for the moment directed to a higher theme—we are thinking of country, of home, of our native land. And are we not one people? Are there any North Carolinians who are not for her and her best interests? Where is the wretch who cares nothing for native or adopted home, "and all that?" Where indeed is his home? Has he a place he can call home? Is he some lonely outcast—some Pariah—some Ishmael? Then he loves not home or country. He has no sweet place of rest—no calm and happy home. Poor, poor fellow. He can never read with true delight the immortal "Cotter's Saturday night" of immortal Robert Burns.

But to return. What a country! How vast! How capable! How grand! You may travel four thousand miles in one direction and never strike the bounds of this vast country. In all this great distance the sun will set behind no hills that do not belong to our United States. When the sun first beams in the Orient, it is to cast his brilliant light upon the Atlantic that lashes forever our Eastern shore; when he goes down behind the Western Mountains it is to shed his parting rays upon the Pacific.—His matins are breathed upon the peaceful dwellings of the old ocean-bound States; his vespers are celebrated amid the quietude of the dwellers on the far Occidental slopes. "It is a good land and large."

What a future lies before us if our people are virtuous and true to God and country. When before did one great nation sweep over so magnificent a domain and claim it as its own? Never. Rome, in her proudest day, when her eagles were borne in triumph over many nations and peoples, never possessed so wide-spread, so grand a heritage.

Here is a great people—not altogether homogeneous—not bound together with closest "hooks of steel"—but still one people; they are united under one system of laws, or ought to be. But this is not the point. However diverse our views; however alienated by causes it is unnecessary now to particularize, we are still, at least for the present, one people. The vast empires of antiquity were composed of many peoples, who had different histories, and varied institutions and arts, and sciences—whose culture was distinct, who had many and conflicting interests; but we are held together, not by the considerate acts of a benign government, but by a common brother-hood, by common aspirations, by common interests, by kindred joys and sorrows, by the claims upon us of a noble ancestry, and by the best interests of those who are to come after us. The Kingdom of Alexander could not say this. The Kingdom of Cæsar—we mean Julius, the "foremost man of all the world"—could not say this. The Kingdom of the Saracen, or of Napoleon, or of Elizabeth could not say this. Never since this world was fashioned first, has there been such a dominion, such a people. They speak almost one language, and have one ruler.

How long will we be one people? Who is the seer to forecast the horoscope of our future? The whole thing, under God, rests upon the virtue, the intelligence, the devotion of our people. If our people are not blind to the past, or utterly careless of the future, our career may yet be as bright and glorious, as our past may have been unexampled.

THE "CUSSING" GOVERNOR MAKES "CUSSING" JUSTICES.

When Chief Justice Pearson broke the sad intelligence to the Governor that the Court had ordered to jail Henderson Adams, the Auditor, for contempt, the Governor said: "Court or no Court, Chief Justice or no Chief Justice, d—d if my officers go to jail until you go over the dead bodies of my militia."

When Justice Judge goes to enter a judgment against a lady because the dogs had killed her sheep, and Nat, a negro, had killed Taylor's dog while eating the sheep, the justice says in the inelegant, but forcible language of the Governor, "d—d if she shant suffer."

In the better days of the Republic, when an office was to be filled, the question asked was "Is he honest, is he capable?"—Such questions are now obsolete, and we suppose the question is, can he "cuss?" Wonder if Marshal Goodloe lost his place because he is a Christian and don't "cuss?"

We are not informed whether Helper, the Assessor for the Sixth District, lost his place because he did not "cuss" or did not steal. We take it to have been the latter, because his successor, "Hon. Wiggly Billy Henderson" appears as defendant on the State Docket indicted for stealing a mule.

We don't understand how the Rev. Sinclair got his place. He was never indicted for mule stealing; he surely don't "cuss." We think him a policy appointment. The Governor thought by having the Rev. Sinclair appointed to place, it would give him (the Governor) place and consideration among Christian men. The Governor knows in the long run it is best to have some friends among Christian men—all "cussing" wont do.

Besides the Rev. Brother favored the Penitentiary fraud after it had the Governor's approval, and that's a feather in any member's cap. Just as good as "cussing."

Two more negroes were appointed clerks in this office yesterday—making four in all—who were seated yesterday cheek by jowl with the chief clerk.

Secretary Boutwell has issued an order directing that there shall be no exchange of securities to insure the public deposit in national banks.

NEW LAWS.

In pursuance of our promise we make a few additional notes of change in our ancient laws and customs.

CENSUS.

In 1875, and every tenth year thereafter, a census of the State is to be taken under State authority, by officers appointed by the Secretary of State. So that we will hereafter have a census taken every five years. First, by the United States and then by the State.

STATIONERY.

Hereafter stationery is to be furnished to each Executive officer of the State, Clerk of Superior Courts, and Register of Deeds, the Clerk of Supreme Court, Judges of Superior and Supreme Courts, and the General Assembly. The officers are to make requisitions for the amount of stationery required for official business, and the Secretary of State is to furnish the amounts, if approved by the Auditor and Treasurer.

The Secretary of State is to invite sealed proposals for furnishing stationery. The account for each county is to be paid by the county. Heretofore the county officers were furnished stationery by the counties. Of the State officers, only those who had offices in the Capitol building were furnished. And the Secretary could buy at private sale.

AUDITOR.

Hereafter the Auditor is to superintend the fiscal concerns of the State. Also to suggest plans for the improvement and management of the public revenue. To countersign and enter all checks drawn by the Treasurer.

Heretofore these duties have been performed by the Treasurer.

TREASURER.

The Chief Clerk of the Treasury is to be called "Deputy Treasurer." Hereafter the Treasurer's accounts are to be examined by Commissioners of the General Assembly, (2 Senators and 3 Representatives,) during October, November and December, each year. Heretofore the Comptroller, (now Auditor,) and Secretary of State made this examination.

We notice, also, that the Treasurer is, especially, "responsible for the conduct of his Deputy." Heretofore it was an unsettled question how far this responsibility extended. The wisdom of the present Treasurer in appointing a man so universally known for uncommon purity and integrity of character, as Mr. Bain is manifested. Any one who knows anything of the duties of the office, is aware how completely the Chief Clerk or "Deputy Treasurer" has power to ruin the Treasurer if he be dishonest. Of necessity, sometimes, millions of dollars of bonds are left for weeks under his control.

We presume that Mr. Bain will be kept in his present place in all mutations of parties, just as similar officers have been retained in England and at Washington for forty or fifty years, no matter what party had power.

Wm. M. Coleman, Esq., the Attorney General of the State, has been nominated by President Grant as United States Consul at Stettin, Prussia. Mr. Coleman has many qualities that make his selection for a German mission highly appropriate. For a number of years a resident in Germany, he is thoroughly acquainted with the language and manners of the people with whom he has to deal.—Standard.

We hear the Attorney General has declined the Consulate to Stettin. What a pity! Treasurer Dave and Victor Barringer will be grieved. Dave has paid out of his own pocket $500 for counsel and advice which the Attorney General should have been able to give him; at least, Dave said he was out that sum. Coleman can be better spared and less missed than any citizen of the State, always excepting the Governor. We say let him go. If the Dutch will put him on lager instead of whiskey they may be able to make him of use to that country—certain it is he can be of no use to this. If he will drink lager and eat Bologna Sausage, he may be able to whip "our beloved Governor's" beloved Joe when he returns. Victor was to have had the place of the Attorney General, three months ago, when that official kept so drunk, and for so long a time; at least it was so said on the street. A lad from Baltimore wrote asking us if Victor was a white man or a negro. If that lad meant to bring reproach on the Caucasian race, we say his mother should give him a switching; if he meant to make a simple inquiry for information, then we tell him Victor is white—with sandy hair, gander eyes, freckled face, fair skin and foul political principles. Victor can't drink enough whiskey to make a good successor to Coleman. The people of Stanly county, Victor's old constituents, pay grudgingly that portion of their tax which goes to pay Victor's salary as a Code Commissioner, for they look upon Victor as the man who betrayed Stanly county into secession, and now they are taxed to pay him for work he is not capable of doing.

Can't Grant send Victor to Spain? In that event Victor like Coleman would be acquainted with the "manners and language" of the people with whom he would have to deal.

A CHANGE.—Perhaps no book was ever more popular, or ever did more harm, than "Uncle Tom's Cabin." Its author, Mrs. H. B. Stowe, a woman of genius, received every exaggerated story of cruelty, on the part of slave-owners, as fact, and embodied her prejudices in a book to which no one will deny unusual cleverness, but which travestied the character, both of the master and slave. Mrs. Stowe has been, for two or three years past, a citizen of Florida, and from her letters published at the North, she is evidently greatly captivated with the beauty and charm of life "under the orange trees." She has been much improved in the tone and temper of her thoughts, and her extreme prejudices have yielded to the softening influences of home-life among the formerly detested slave-owners. She is a woman of sense, and her observations in the South have enabled her to correct and change some of her former impressions and views that were erroneous and unjust. As the Richmond Dispatch says: "The Southern sun and the orange trees are a sovereign remedy for intractability and uncharitableness."

NASH COUNTY, April 20, 1869.

Mr. Editor:—I send you the case of Taylor vs. Nat Turner as adjudicated by Justice Judge.

Nat is a negro—Mrs. Turner a widow lady. J. J. Judge, one of Holdens' Justices. Draper was by Judge made Special Constable by word of mouth, and not by the aid of pen and paper.

Nat found Taylor's dog eating Mrs. Turner's dead sheep, and he shot the dog. Taylor warranted Nat before Justice Judge, when Nat was called up, and asked why he killed the dog. His reply was, Mrs. Turner told me she would stand twixed me and all danger. Then said the Justice, d—d if she aint the guilty party and I'll make her suffer. So Mrs. Turner was put in the warrant as defendant instead of Nat.

The warrant was returnable forthwith, and Draper was commanded forthwith to go and serve the warrant upon Mrs. Turner. Mrs. Turner lived some two miles from Judge. It was not convenient for her to go upon such sudden notice; so she declined. In a little while officer Draper returned and said the lady would not come. Then Justice Judge gave a judgment against her for $25 for killing Taylor's dog. Execution issued forthwith and Mrs. Taylor paid the judgment rather than be annoyed by Justice Judge.

This is speedy justice, especially when the law in North Carolina allows the person whose sheep are killed by dogs to recover damages from the owner of the dog. Not a witness was sworn, nor Draper deputized according to law, but only commanded to serve the warrant. No body blames Judge or Draper, they acted ignorantly.—Governor Holden is to blame in the whole matter. Such things can't last but four years longer. Yours,

NASH.

SEEDS OF DISCORD.

The Standard, in replying to a statement of a correspondent of the New York Times that there was a division in the Republican party in this State, quotes the trite saying, "One has to go from home to hear news!" Yet the next article but one in the same paper informs the public that Mr. Bowman, of Mitchell, has received a testimonial signed by twenty-one members of of the Legislature, and Mr. Pou, and Mr. McDonald, expressing their appreciation of his course concerning the school bill. Mr. Bowman's successful opposition to the party effort to permit mixed school and to provide a fat job for certain members of the carpet bag wing in publishing "loyal" school books, was very offensive to French, Estes, Downing and others of that stripe. French, Hayes, and others of the carpet-bag wing denounced as weak-kneed the native members of their party, and announced their political deaths. But the fact of the testimonial shows what feeling had been created and to what extent Mr. Bowman's course had been endorsed.

Any attempt to disguise the patent fact that there is a division in the ranks of the Radical party in North Carolina is ridiculous and dishonest. Not only do the two wings differ greatly as to measures, but the most watchful jealousy exists in regard to the division of spoils. The native Radicals, alarmed at the influence of their Northern friends over the Governor, and the success which attended their aspirations for office, commenced with complaints, then with united efforts to check this growing power of the carpet-bagger. From a leader in the Legislature and the conscience keeper of the Governor, the Northern Radical has lost his wonted influence, and already there are none to do him reverence. A short time in the Senate, a disgraceful and temporary trace in the Judiciary, his course will soon be run. Heaton and Deweese must give way to the negro, and thus will end the official connection of the carpet-bagger with the higher positions in North Carolina. We are not prepared to say that the State will be benefited by the change, but we speak only of the certain tendency of affairs. We would possibly sympathize with that wing which Holden opposed, as we can hardly believe his friendship and support could be obtained by any honest or honorable consideration. — Wil. Journal.

For the Sentinel.

UNIVERSITY OF VA., April 17, 1868.

Editor Sentinel:—While embarrassed with political difficulties, which harrow the soul of the patriot, and which present a sad comment upon an age of progress, with pleasure and with profit we might turn, for a moment, from this dark picture, to behold, in delightful contrast the spirit and energy which characterizes our people in the development of the intellectual resources of our Southern country. And, as this Institution probably yields precedence to no other in contributing to the consummation of this glorious end, the events and characters which have made this year a memorable one in the history of this Institution, may not be wholly devoid of interest to the readers of the Sentinel.

Our second literary festival came off on the 13th inst., which occasion was the anniversary intermediate celebration of the Jefferson Society. The Hall was filled at an early hour, and even to the most unrefined taste could not have failed to present an attractive interest. The preparations were worthy of the occasion. The Hall was gorgeously decorated with festoons of choicest flowers, which displayed the taste and artistic ingenuity of those who had contributed to its decoration. The time was propitious for enjoyment, for the light of every eye and the accents of every lip seemed to indicate that each and all realized that it was a common festival for

"Bright
The lamps shone o'er fair women and admiring men,
A thousand hearts beat happily; and then,
Music arose with voluptuous swell,
Soft eyes spake love to eyes that spake again."

The respective literary societies—the Washington and the Jefferson came in, in order, after which the corps of Professors, on the appearance of whom, with becoming deference, the two societies rose till they had taken their allotted positions. The Presidents of the two societies came next in order, followed by the Reader, and the procession closed with the orator of the evening, Mr. Charles F. McKesson, of North Carolina, who was greeted with enthusiastic applause which could not have failed to impressed the speaker, not only of the anxious solicitude, but, also, with the abiding confidence that he would uphold the dignity of the occasion in a manner worthy of the past history of the Jefferson Society.

The band then played an air beautiful, pleasing and appropriate to the occasion. Prayer was then offered by the Rev. P. Tenley, chaplain of the University. Music followed.

The President of the Jefferson society Mr. R. S. Williams then very gracefully introduced the Reader of the occasion Mr. S. P. Tuck of Md., who read the Declaration of Independence as an appropriate ceremony in the celebration of a society which bears the name of the immortal author of that venerated document, and that too in an Institution of which he was the illustrious founder. Mr. Tuck presented a graceful appearance on the stage, his emphasis was good, his voice clear, his annunciation distinct, his style animated, by which he elicited the attention and interest even of this gay throng to the grand principles embodied in this proclamation of the inalienable rights of freemen.

The band then made their happiest effort after which, Mr. Williams with an air of evident gratification, introduced Mr. McKesson, the annunciation of whose name was greeted with the most enthusiastic cheers, in the midst of which the orator came forward, and after a happy and appropriate prelude, announced as his subject: "The influence of surroundings on man."

In speaking of woman's influence, he paid to woman that apt and befitting tribute which only few can pay. It was no fulsome compliment of a sickly sentimentality, but the elegant and dignified tribute of one who comprehended the scope and majesty of the character of woman's real worth. He adverted to the influence of climate upon the habits and customs of men; the influence of circumstances on his fortune, and of free and tyranical governments in giving direction to the genius, the literature, and the tone to the character of the national body. His delineation of the mutability of human greatness and grandeur, was an unbroken train of beautiful thoughts expressed in a style of almost unrivalled beauty and elegance of diction. He concluded by noting the influence of christianity, and then upon its immutable principles constructed a "platform upon which all men might stand, bidding defiance to the force of circumstances, a principle which has come down through the lapse of ages maintaining unchanged its eternal doctrines, and which will follow the ages and bequeath the legacy of its truths to the last generation, and at the death of time will be transmitted by destiny, to the Heaven of its origin in the assertion of its inherent immortality."

His appearance was modest, his action graceful, his gesticulation eloquent and forcible, his voice musical and impressive, his style animated, his arguments logical, around which he displayed the beauties of rhetoric with force and adaptation which belongs to the finished orator.—His voice first low and impressive, like a musical incantation, winding its way thro' the innermost recesses of the heart, then rising gradually in the scale of modulation, with the grandeur, boldness and force of his thoughts, he infused the influence of his own emotions into the heart of his hearers, and gave life and materiality to the images of his own powerful conception. The loud and prolonged applause, the shower of bouquets which fell thick and fast around him attested the appreciation of the effort of the orator. Well did we see the force of the sentiment uttered, on the night of his election by his magnanimous and chivalrous competitor: "My lance was broken by a gallant Knight."

The band then struck up "Champagne Charley is my name." After which the exercises closed, and the "young folks" retired to keep pace to the notes of the "Washington band" in the promenadation of the beautiful walks which surround the College lawn. The grounds were splendidly illuminated, the band in the centre around which the "promenaders" made their continual circuits, invested the scene with a romantic interest. Such an occasion methinks would have caused the plighted lover to reiterate his vows to "make assurance doubly sure," and the timid and modest might have caught inspiration for the disclosure of the secret, and no doubt the silent language of the heart uttered the sentiment:

"And if there be an Elysium on earth,
It is this; it is this."

And those who were not so fortunately situated, were certainly entitled to the sympathies due to unpropitious fortune.

After the promenading was over, the Professors houses were open for receptions, where the fortunate guests partook of the delicacies of the season, after which they at least acted on the sentiment:

"No sleep till morn when youth and pleasure meet,
To chase the glowing hours with flying feet."

Morning came and then there were sad partings "such as press the life from out young hearts," but still a moment's reflection might again buoy their hearts with hope and promise, as the final celebrations take place in June which will bring a reunion of friends, and a prolonged reassessment of the scenes which characterized our past festival. "So mote it be."

BLAIR AGAIN.—We are under special favor to our friend Blair, the Proprietor of the Yarborough. He has again favored us with the choic st ice cream and cake. Many thanks.

GODDIN'S "Gentian Bitters" are recommended highly by those who have tried it.

THE PREVAILING FASHION.—What is it? To appoint the most obscure, incapable, and corrupt men to office. Since this government was founded, no such list of appointments has ever been given to the country. If the country had been "raked and scraped" a more complete set of leather-heads could not have been found. Grant was expected by all, both by Conservatives and Radicals, to appoint "moderate" men; but he has given a turn to the matter that was not anticipated—they are too "moderate;" they are so "moderate" in ability and experience that even the strongest and most influential supporters of the Administration are surprised. Only hear the New York Herald of the 21st inst., one of Grant's warmest supporters:

"There was a time when the government, untouched in the purity of its original organization, sent such men abroad as did the people credit. Gradually, as the power has centred in the Senate, ministers and consuls have grown of lighter calibre in everything that makes a man. To day the list of foreign appointments, with but few exceptions, may be characterized as the worst we have yet known."

PERSONAL.

Bismarck's wife acts as his private secretary.

Train has delivered his "seventy fifth lecture of the course of six hundred in succession."

William Hurlburt, of Cornwall, Vermont, recently died of starvation. He was seventy years of age, a bachelor, and worth some $8,000; but having lost $130 through robbery, he became despondent, afraid of coming to poverty, and having refused to eat, he starved himself to death.

De Cassagnac, the editor of the Paris Pays, wants to fight sixteen duels with as many brother editors who refused to mess with him at the prison of St. Pelagie.

It is reported in some of the English papers that Dr. Pusey, the High Church leader, has been found to be a real Jesuit priest. The revelation purports to have been made by a Jesuit priest on the Continent.

Dickens has been threatened with a libel suit by the proprietors of the Alhambra.

The last prisoner of the revolutionary war has died again. This time he was Daniel Bakewell, of this State, aged 111.

Roebuck's Sheffield friends have given him a "testimonial" in the shape of £3,000 in trust for his daughter.

M. E. Desfolgues, the French critic, says, in a late number of the Opinion Nationale, that he never laughed more heartily than upon reading a few chapters of Abbott's Life of Napoleon the III. He says that all Frenchmen who have got the blues should learn English, and then read Abbott's "merry" biography.

Maximilian's library sold for $4,000 more than it cost.

Daniel Frederick Beakman, the last surviving soldier of the Revolutionary War, died at Freedom, Cattaraugus county, New York, on the morning of April 5, at the advanced age of 109 years, 6 months.

Mr. Edwin Booth has engaged Mr. Joseph Jefferson to play seven weeks in his theatre, beginning early in August. The terms are said to be five dollars a night, and half the gross receipts at the matinees, after a deduction of a hundred and fifty dollars.

Speaking of Grant's candidates for foreign missions, the Chicago Republican (Radical) compliments them after this wise:

"It is understood that some of the persons indicated are not famous for personal integrity and dignity of character; that others are not complete masters of the spelling book and of the art of English composition; that others besides are not over distinguish d for devotion to the cause o loyalty; and that, at least in one case, there are strong probabilities that the nominee is not even a naturalized citizen."

A WEALTHY DIRECTOR OF THE PHILADELPHIA UNION LEAGUE (A NEWLY-CONFIRMED UNITED STATES CONSUL) CAUGHT ROBBING STORES.—Philadelphia, April 19.—There was considerable excitement here in Republican circles to-day by the discovery that a wealthy gentleman, a director of the Union League, and recently confirmed to a European consulate, had for a long time been engaged in robbing stores, &c. He was detected yesterday stealing a box of cigars from a grocery store.

He confessed his guilt, and said he could not resist the temptation to steal, and paid $500, the estimated value of the goods taken from the store. Shortly afterwards he resigned from the League, and it is supposed he will never get to his consulate.—He obtained his appointment on the recommendation of prominent politicians here.

STATE NEWS.

SUPERIOR COURT YESTERDAY.—Owing to the absence of Judge Thomas, who is dangerously ill, Judge Russell presided over the Court yesterday, and his charge to the Grand Jury was favorably received by those who heard it.

The Judge decided that no one could place a substitute either on a venire or grand jury, unless special permission from the Court was given. He dwelt on the harmony prevailing between the two colors, and spoke of the impartial manner in which law should be administered to all.—Wilmington Star.

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman from Pennsylvania is at present in this place with the view of purchasing a small farm for the purpose of carrying on the trucking business, which with the existing arrangements on the Wilmington and Weldon and Seaboard and Roanoke railroads, can be made highly profitable to the parties engaged in it, and to the parties who dispose of their lands to such persons, and we do not see why it is that those who own them will not throw them upon the market, as at present they are lying idle.—Roanoke News.

THE LATE FROSTS.—The recent cold spell and accompanying frost did much damage to the early vegetables in this section. There is quite a difference of opinion as to the extent of the damage to fruit. Our impression is that while some peach orchards have suffered severely, yet there is sufficient fruit left for an average yield.—We hear that in most cases the forward strawberries have been killed.—Wilson Plaindealer.

THE CANAL.—We understand the State has authorized the President of the canal terminating at this point to sell it at the sum of forty-five thousand dollars, but as this State and Virginia both are interested largely in the stock of the company, we hear there will have to be another meeting of the Legislature before it can be disposed of.—Roanoke News.

Some weeks ago we stated, says the Charlotte Democrat, that Mr. Burrell Hilton, a young white man, was murdered near this city. Three negro men, Josiah Henderson, Monroe Torrence and Sykes Funderburg were arraigned last week before J. N. Hunter, J. P., charged with the crime. Two of the negroes, Henderson and Torrence, confessed the crime, and acknowledged that all three struck Mr. Hilton a blow with an axe. Henderson and Torrence declare that they ran off after hitting Hilton, and that Funderburg remained and robbed the body of money and clothing. All three were committed to jail.

An effort is on foot in this city, among our live merchants, to establish a regular line of steamers between this city and Wilmington, N. C., and in order to encourage the enterprise and give it substantial assurance of success we are assured that the leading business men and planters of Beaufort, Pitt, Martin, Greene and Edgecombe counties promise their valuable aid and influence to the line of steamers by their patronage.—Norfolk Journal.

An incendiary applied fire to the school house at Company Shops last Thursday night, completely destroying it, with all its books, furniture &c.—Greensboro Patriot.

The first train on the N. W. N. C. railroad left this place this morning, under the charge of Capt. Cahill, and consisted of two large government wagons loaded with provisions for the hands now working near here.—Ib.

LATEST ARRIVAL.—A live alligator from the swamps of Florida, brought by Col. Z mmer, the energetic emigration and railroad agent. It is proposed to place this new settler in Orrell's pond as soon as he gets acclimated. We tremble for the boys.—Ib.

ROCK ISLAND WOOLEN MILLS, CHARLOTTE, N. C.—The factory has eleven one hundred inch Crompton looms, thirty two Jencks' six treadle looms, and twenty-eight more are putting up. Or, as wool machinery is always rated by "sets," they have six complete sets of wool machinery, and their production is from one thousand to twelve hundred yards of cassimeres per day, enough to make four hundred pair of pantaloons or two hundred and fifty coats. The goods are from all wool cassimeres, with double and twisted all wool warps, fit to adorn a Broadway dandy, down to the strong, heavy, durable jeans, so much liked by our own people, and so cheap as to be within the reach of the poorest. Every yard is guaranteed by the proprietors, and they are seeking to sell direct to the merchants of the South. They give notice that purchasers can return all goods not coming up to their representation.—Cor. Wil. Jour.

Question for "Loil League" Debate—is a White man as good as a negro?

Affirmative—Wilson Carey, Galloway, Cook, and other colored men.

Negative—Joe Holden, 'His Excellency the Governor,' J. W. Stephens and J. M. Jones, Esquire, (the man that cried in the League because 'Paul' wouldn't shake hands with him.)—Milton Chron.

The Corner Stone of the M. E. Church will be laid to morrow evening at 3 o'clock, Dr. R. S. Moran, officiating. A large attendance is expected.—East. Intelligencer.

Three thousand plows have been turned out by Wilson county factories this year.

WHEAT.—This article looks well and if the season holds good we shall have a heavy crop. But it matters very little whether we have a large crop or a short one, so far as price is concerned. "The Rings" arranges the figures, and the people dance to its music. Milton Chronicle.

The jail was opened on Tuesday evening last, at half past six, and 7 prisoners walked out over the intoxicated guard, Mr. Calvin Buchanan. Two negroes refused to leave, preferring to be boarded at the expense of the county. Let our county rejoice that this precious batch of offenders is free, as it saves them at least $5 per day, may they like old John Brown's soul—"still keep marching on."

Clapp has been recaptured.—Greensboro Patriot.

WORK COMMENCED It is with pleasure we learn from Gen'l. Lewis, that work has really begun on the Williamston & Tarboro rough Railroad.

Mr. H. D. Roberson has taken under contract a section of the Road near Robersonville, and is now engaged with a large number of hands in grading.

It is expected that the whole line will be under contract in a short time and the Road pushed rapidly to completion.

Preparations for the construction of the bridge over the Tar has already begun, and lumber for the same is now being secured.—Tar, Southerner.

We are deeply pained to record the untimely death of Mr. Thos. Garland, a young planter living six miles distant in this county, who, in a fit of delirium tremens on Sunday last terminated his earthly career by shooting himself in the head with a pistol. He was a young gentleman highly respected and esteemed by all who knew him. His soul was the seat of honor, and his heart was kind and generous to a fault.—Milton Chron.

BRIEF NEWS NOTES.

London has no less than six theatres that are managed by women.

In 1866, the last census, the population of France was 38,067,094.

The Louisana sugar crop is estimated at 80,000 hogsheads or twice as much as in 1867.

Dr Harris tells us that nine hundred horses in New York city died of glanders last year.

Plymouth Church gives Saturday matinees, fifteen cents admission, at which the big organ is played.

Sugar raising is on the decline in Cuba, the profits thereon, it is alledged, not amounting to more than six per cent.

The people in one section of New Hampshire rode to church in sleighs, during the past season, on eighteen successive Sundays.

A sporting man in Paris has opened an office for advising inexperienced young men in regard to so called affairs of honor. He teaches them for fifty francs how to insult their adversaries in the most genteel manner, and how to resent affronts so as to render a duel inevitable.

Horace Greeley says that the darkest day in any man's earthly career is that wherein he fancies that there is some easier way of gaining a dollar than by squarely earning it.

Texas has begun to grumble loudly over the crop prospects. The grasshoppers are already destroying the corn by wholsale and there is little hope that cotton can be successfully planted.

It is authoritatively announced by a San Francisco paper that five and a half million dollars' worth of silkworm eggs were exported from the port of Yokohama, Japan, in 1868. The purchasers were mostly Frenchmen.

The largest rose bush in France is at Toulon. It covers a wall seventy-five feet long by eighteen in height, and near the root measures two feet eight inches round. In the months of April and May it produces fifty thousand roses

It is authoritatively announced that the capital stock of the Louisville Courier Journal is owned by three parties exclusively, W. H. Halderman, Henry Watterson, and Isham Henderson. It is divided as follows: Mr. Halderman holds $151,000; Mr. Watterson, $75,000; and Mr Henderson, $74,000. The stock brings a premium on the market, but is not for sale.

The Ministers from the United States to England and France receive $17,500 a year each; the Ministers to Austria, Spain, and Mexico, $12 000 each; the Minister to Hayti and Liberia, $7,500; the Ministers Resident in Sweden, Belgum, Guatemala, Bogota, Bolivia, and Nicaragua, $7,500.

The demand for feathers to adorn bonnets has led to such wholesale destruction of wild ducks, gulls, and other birds, that laws have been passed in France and Switzerland to limit the business to certain times of the year, and the subject is under consideration in the British Parliament.

The stage of the new "Her Majesty's Theatre," in London, is the finest in Europe, being sixty-one feet deep, ninety-nine wide, and eighty-one feet high. The system of framing the proscenium more or less in barbaric gold will be abandoned in favor of the real architectural and classical style.

It takes fifty-seven paymasters, from brigadier general down, to do nothing in the world but pay off the present standing army of the United States.

Ten thousand sugar maple trees are tapped in town of Farmington Me.

It has become fashionable for Parisian ladies to wear wigs made of floss silk.

Fashionable parasols in Paris this year have handles of green and red morocco.

The contract of the French Government for Virginia tobacco has been awarded to two houses in New York. The order is for about eight thousand hogsheads. Three qualities of tobacco are usually bought: a first rate article of lugs, short leaf, and of good quality. This tobacco is bought for the purpose of being manufactured into snuff. The snuff made of it is of the celebrated "Maccaboy" brand, a coarse snuff highly flavored, and almost universally used in France, and the secret of the manufacture of which is carefully kept. Sweet, sound tobacco is bought for this contract, and is in that respect different from the order from Germany, to fill which "funket" tobacco is preferred.

RICHMOND VA., April 21st.—General T. L. Haymond, member of Congress from Virginia before the war, died this morning.

WHIM WHAMS.

"Typ me a ballad, ladye farye, my ladye, a ballad typ;" and ye man he twirled ye black moustache that covered his upper lip. She lay aside her 'broiderie—for hys love she styryves to win—and to a weird like ayr the ladye tayre attunes her mandolyn. "I do not care for a wild romance of ye days of old," says he, "but rather I'd hear, if my layde please, some touching melodie." And over ye ladye's musye book ye gallant soldier leans, while she sings with a sweet and angel voice "Captain Jinks of ye Horse Maryn a!"

Tears differ. They may mean downright sorrow or upright joy. Some people feel "so glad" they coz it out at the eye; others do the same thing from an opposite cause. Mrs. Flimflam appears to be gifted with a faculty for either extreme. When her son John Small was born she shed copiously, and laughed and cried at the same time; and when Mr. Flimflam left for good, her shed was of the same varied sort, only the laugh shed somehow came in oftener than the cry shed.

When a woman has her dress stepped on in the street, by which it receives a pretty extensive demolishment, and she says 'Never mind, sir, it's of no sort of consequence," do you believe she means it? and isn't she likely to say, two steps on, "What a beast that calf was!" Of course she is. It's as natural as it is for her to breathe, and she says it a great deal earlier than she breaths, in view of the taut lace-work around her waist.

The New York "Sun" says: "The Spanish Government are buying metalic cartridges in this country with which to kill and maim the patriots of Cuba. The Union Metalic Company of East Bridgeport, Connecticut, are now at work on an order from Madrid for ten millions of these cartridges to fit the Berdan breech loading musket.

Prof. Davidson recently lectured in San Francisco on the recent telegraphic determination of longitude, stating that the corrections of former moon determinations were found to have been nearly correct by the electric observations, the difference being only one second. The time occupied in making the electrical circuit between Cambridge and San Francisco was 87 hundredths of a second.

A CHAPTER OF ANCIENT HISTORY.—Harper's Weekly is responsible for the following contribution to our archæological knowledge. Readers may find it advantageous to cut it out and preserve it for reference:

History of Boston.—Boston, in the State of Massachusetts, is a city of no mean pretensions. In age it antedates the Pyramids.

When first discovered by the Ten Tribes, in 1383, B. C., it bore the marks of extreme antiquity.

Faneuil Hall is supposed to have been the original Solomon's Temple, and Boston Common is known to be the Garden of Eden with modern improvements. The Tree of Life has been removed to make room for the magnificent Old Elm, and the Four Rivers are represented by the beautiful fountain which squirts continually.

Boston was named in honor of a certain cracker, which was there made in great perfection by the pre-Adamite inhabitants. And it retains the name—and the cracker—to this day.

A certain one of its poets whose nom de plume is Holmes, has called Boston the Hub of the Universe. Being the hub, and also a place where the risible muscles are never used, it may fitly be termed the centre of gravity.

No one laughs in Boston, and whoever would smile must go into a bar-room to do it.

The streets in Boston are unlike the one in Damascus which was called Straight. When laid out, far back in the carbonic rous period, the Street Commissioner did not heed the injunction of the "Great Expounder:" "Ye solid men of Boston, drink no strong potations;" and so the lanes and avenues of the town stagger about after the similitude of a ram's horn.

The principal hotel was formerly kept by Theodore Parker, and is still called the Parker House. It is kept on the European plan, which is, to charge so much for a room that you have no money left to invest in a breakfast.

Boston includes the towns of Cambridge, Jamaica Plains, Roxbury, Framingham, Worcester, Salem, and indeed all Massachusetts.

SHARPE TREATMENT OF A BRAVE MAN.—The confirmation of Jos. C. Brand, Consul at Nuremberg, made, it is reported, quite a scene in the Senate. General Lefevre, of Ohio, present incumbent, is a veteran volunteer, who fought his way up from a private to a generalship by sheer bravery and capacity, and whose promotion was forced out of the Department by his gallantry, despite of the desire to keep him down, because he is a Democrat. He has been wounded six times, is the only Democrat from Ohio holding a federal office, and, moreover, is an excellent French and German scholar, and has been the best of consuls. His successor is a man who does not know a squatroon from a hunk of ginger bread; was never in the war, except by contract, and only indifferently knows even the English language. These facts were eloquently brought out by Conservatives Senators in executive session; but they availed only to strengthen the Radical vote which called the soldier home.—N. Y. World.

Mr. Charles Francis Adams is quoted as having said that the treaty lately submitted about the Alabama claims was a good treaty, creditable both to Lord Clarendon and Mr. Johnson, and that it ought to have been adopted with some slight changes.—Moreover, he thinks Sumner's speech on the subject did more harm than good.

LIGHTING STREETS BY ELECTRICITY.—A Mr. Wheeler proposes a plan for lighting the streets of New York by electricity. His method is similar to that in operation in the dome of the Capitol and the halls of Congress at Washington. He claims that the whole expense of laying wires, erecting the batteries, and lighting the city, will be saved and paid for in a few years, at the present cost of simply lighting the lamps. He estimates that, in 20 years, the saving to the city will be $1,000,000. By the proposed arrangement, if any lamp should be extinguished accidentally, it will immediately relight itself. In addition to the proposed electrical lighting the wires (he says) can be used for telegraphic purposes, and a complete system of telegraphic communication with every part of the city can be arranged. The subject has been referred to a Committee of aldermen.

The New York Tribune says:

The nomination of Howard for China met with slight opposition, but J. Ross Browne's friends could not show satisfactorily that he had ever done anything for the Republican cause, and that the party in power owed him anything.

SENT TO THE WORK HOUSE.—Stephen Jones and Archie Worth, two colored men convicted of larceny, were yesterday sent to the county work house, to remain for the period of six months, during which time, it is hoped, they will be adepts in the manufacture of "bricks.—Wil. Star.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN, Or Pure Liquor of Juniper Berries.

This favorite brand of Pure London Cordial Gin, has stood the test of time, imitation, piracy, high tariffs and unfair competition, and still enjoys a constantly increasing sale; showing that true merit does not always go unappreciated.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is offered to the public as a perfectly reliable specific in all cases of DISEASED BLADDER and KIDNEYS. It acts directly on these organs, with a directness and speediness which render it invaluable to persons suffering from GRAVEL, DIABETES, INFLAMED BLADDER, scanty and highly colored urine, and in all cases where, from whatever cause, a healthful diuretic is required.

Ladies subject to painful menstruation, can by the use of Cordial Gin a few days previous to, and during illness, obtain great relief. In such instances it should be taken with sugar and warm water.

As a tonic and beverage this Gin is unequaled, as it possesses none of the headache properties to be found in those poisons, now so frequently sold under the names of Gin, Brandy, Whiskey, &c.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Thursday Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The Senate postponed the San Juan treaty.

Capt. Henry A. Wise, formerly Chief of the Naval Ordinance Bureau, died at Naples.

There were only half a dozen nominations today. None South of us.

Admiral Davis reports that the allies refused to allow a bearer of dispatches to the Paraguayan Minister, Mr. McMahon, to pass the lines.

The President withdrew the nomination of James B. Townsend as Marshal of North Mississippi.

The details of the flood at the North are terrible. At Granby, Canada, eleven persons were swept away by the flood. At Albany New York the water is within two feet of the flood of 1867. The Merrimac at Concord, is higher than since 1832.

The Senate will doubtless remain in session all night unless the adjourning resolution is reconsidered.

There was a big fight to-day over Sanford for Spain. The nomination was finally tabled, 29 to 30. This leaves the 60 nominations for first class missions in abeyance.

In the Senate to-day Mr. Sprague in replying to Mr. Nye who made a personal explanation and Mr. Abbott of North Carolina who defended Gen. Burnside, Governor of Rhode Island, said he had expected to be ridiculed and denounced as drunk and crazy, but there was a multitude behind him equally intoxicated and equally crazy. During his speech still alluding to messrs. Nye, Abbott and Anthony, Mr. Sprague said, is there anything left in the Constitution of our fathers that remains sacred yet against which you do not yet dare to raise your parricidal hands.

FROM BALTIMORE.

BALTIMORE, April 23.—A Virginia delegation headed by Robert Ehoe, is here on behalf of the Virginia Valley Railroad.

The deputation was received by the Mayor and city authorities. The business meeting occurs to-morrow at 4 o'clock.

FROM CANADA.

OTTOWA, April 22.—Notice was given in the Commons of a bill of indemnity against the United States for precautionary measures against the Fenians. The mover said the object was to give members an opportunity to speak fo the subject, and express their views upon Mr. Chandler's speech.

Friday Evening Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 23 M.

Sprague's words which offended Abbott were: Mr. President: In answer to the tirade of the Senators from North Carolina and Nevada, I am reminded of a little illustration in my travels from the centre here into the rural districts through the woods and farms of the surrounding neighborhood. Chance at one time brought me to a farm house.

I discovered on looking up a large mastiff and a mongrel puppy dog. The little dog moved on me with rapidity from behind. But at my heels and frightened at his temerity he ran frightened and howling away, followed by his larger companion. The Senate will observe that the mongrel whining puppy encouraged by the mastiff and emboldened to make the attack from the shadow of its backer ran rapidly away alarmed at his temerity, whilst the over grown cur followed after with ears cropped, and tail between his legs to a place of safety beside his mental companion."

During yesterday evening, Abbott threatened to horsewhip Sprague unless he retracted. In the senate last night Abbott said: "When I arose in Executive Session to ask that the doors be opened sometime ago, I said that I did not intend to utter anything unbecoming on this floor—what I did intend to do, was to ask the Senator from Rhode Island, if he intended to apply the term 'puppy' to me, as is implied in the connection of the language. If he did intend to apply it to me, my purpose was to ask him for a retraction as full as the implication of the language, and if he refused that retraction, my intention was to ask for satisfaction out of this chamber. I now, sir, give notice to as much as that Senator was absent out of the chamber that I intend to have satisfaction outside of this chamber.

Sumner called Abbott to order, who, after much confusion, was allowed to say in explanation. 'I will state that I am not a duellist.'—(not much.) "I was not educated as a duellist"—(very apparent or you would not publish your retraction)—and I did not mean that sort of thing—(of course not) but I meant to say, that the Senator from Rhode Island must make a retraction as broad as the order, and that I shall have that satisfaction outside of this chamber in some way.

In contradiction of the report that Sprague left town early this morning and that Abbott was absent from the usual haunts known, Sprague was seen at home all the morning and Abbott seated from Abbott.

Wheeden's Excelsior Labor-Saving WASHING COMPOUND.

Patented Sept. 22, 1868.

REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS SOAP.

The Patentee claims for this soap the following advantages which are clearly set forth in the Letters Patent, to-wit:

First, it can be manufactured at less than half the cost of any soap ever produced.

Secondly, it may be used successfully in any kind of water—cold or hot, hard or soft.

Thirdly, it so modifies the action of boiling water on woollen goods that their fibres do not contract under its influence, and your woollen garment is as large after boiling as before.

Fourth, it does not decompose the colors of goods, and your prints and stripes are as brilliant after washing as before.

Fifth, the goods do not require any rubbing or soaking in washing machine—all that is necessary is a few minutes boiling and a good rinsing.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS FROMI-ES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so muddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He cannot comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he goes into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

U. S. A.,

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of

$1,000,000

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued 3,582 policies.

Amount insured,	$10,005,500.00

By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey,	693

" Phœnix Mutual,	335
" Massachusetts Mutual,	312
" Equitable of New York,	277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 470 policies.

In its 15th year,	4,260 "
And in its 20th year,	2,812 "

this latter being 690 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

PUBLISHED AT THE

CAPITAL OF THE STATE,

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

FIRST CLASS NEWSPAPER.

CAUTION! WE desire to warn the dealers in, and consumers of Snuff generally, that since the war, certain Tobacco Manufacturers, being unable to find a market for their snuffs, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."

In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them, as they are the losers thereby. It will be found, upon comparison, that Lorillard's Snuff is "far ahead" of all others, being made of the best stock, after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age, strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast,) or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any stove or range, in any boiler, and the Low Price of the Article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of boil, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the coarsest blankets. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not rub them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty or thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and cleansing the dirt WITHOUT LABOR OR FRICTION.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF FUEL, AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany the introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

Its invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & ODELL'S and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state
